BRIDGES

In New York City Closely Guarded by State Militia

3000 TROOPS ON DUTY

Officials Do Not Fear Organized Violence But Take Precaution to Prevent Possible Action of Some Crank—Gov. Whitman Believes All Citizens Are Behind President Wilson

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

New York, Feb. 5.—Precautions taken by state and municipal authorities in the face of the international crisis were directed today mainly toward transportation lines and munition centers and public buildings and utilities. The greatest watchfulness was exercised in New York city and the vicinity, but guards stationed at the bridges of the Hudson river at Poughkeepsie and Albany emphasized the strategic importance of this great waterway dividing New England from the rest of the United States

About 3,000 men of the national guard are under arms. Of these 2,400 are infantrymen and 600 are members of the naval militia. This force is increased in guard duty by several thousand municipal policemen, railroad detectives and special officers employed by the public service commission. About 16,000 more national guard are waiting call to active service.

In this city special vigilance is exercised at the two great bridges which span the East River above the government navy yard in Brooklyn. Small cannon and machine guns are posted between the bridge piers on both sides of the river. It is expected that the police today will relieve the naval militia of the duty of guarding these bridges.

"We have no suspicion that there is or will be any organized effort against any public utility," said Governor Whitman. "I believe that all our citizens are with the president; and that includes the so-called 'German-Americans.'"

The governor declared that these precautions were to protect public works, "against the possible action of some crank."

It is expected that the legislature will be asked today to pass immediately an appropriation making available an amount providing for the transportation and maintenance of the state troops.

BRITISH ARMY IN THE TRENCHES IS PLEASED WITH NEWS

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

With the British Army In France, Feb: 4, Via London Feb. 5, 6:05 a. m. —From a Staff Correspondent of the Associated Press.—Only the briefest possible announcement of the break between the United States and Germany was contained in the wireless news bulletins distributed to the British armies today and even this came late in the afternoon. It will be another day before the full import of the news percolates through the vast army organization and its effect noted.

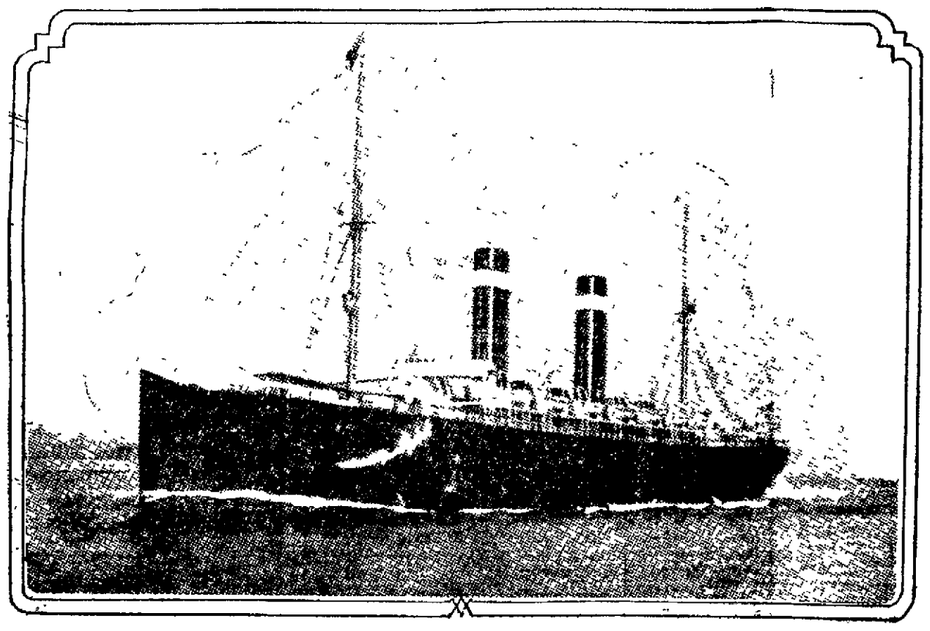

Soldiers who heard the meager announcement late today were eager for details. President Wilson's action it can be definitely stated, did not cause a surprise, but nevertheless there was a feeling of relief that the tension was ended and that America was morally if not physically, ranged against Germany. Officers exchanging messages over the network of the army telephone system tonight all helped to spread the news and comments of satisfaction were generally heard. The army believes that other neutrals will follow America's lead and that Germany will soon find herself literally opposed by the entire world outside of her allies. The British officers believe that the news of the breach with the United States will have a deleterious effect on German morale, and that efforts may be made by Berlin to prevent it reaching the fighting units. The opinion is held here that the Amreican action will necessarily hasten the end of the war but the difficulties facing America in the event of her actually entering the war are fully recognized. Even if the United States joins the ranks of the belligerents it is not expected troops could be possibly be sent to Europe before the end of the war which is confidently expected in the coming year. The psychological effect on Germany of being cut off from her last big friend among the nations is the principal consideration which the British military observers who are convinced that this effect will be very great. While there is no thought that President Wilson's action can result in any immediate military assistance the news from Washington has been received in the British trenches is best tidings that have reached the fighting line in a long time.

Teutonic Societies in New York Declare Loyalty to U. S.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

New York, Feb. 5.—Representatives of German, Austria and Hungarian organizations in New York City said today that the resolution of "unqualified loyalty and allegiance" to the United States adopted at a meeting of these bodies last night was only the first message of this kind that would be sent to President Wilson this week.

Last night's meeting was attended by representatives of Teutonic and Hungarian organizations with a membership of 100,000.

The meeting was held in response to a call sent out several weeks ago to perfect arrangements for a charity bazaar and it was decided to "forego all affairs of a frivilous or entertaining nature" during the present crisis.

Telegrams were sent to President Wilson and members of Congress urging them to keep the nation out of war.

Mrs. E. G. Doernhoefer, president of the German Alliance for Women, one of the speakers, said that although five of her fifteen relatives in the German army had been killed, if war is declared on Germany her three sons without hesitation would enlist in the United States army. "I would be a bad mother," she said, "if I did not teach them to love and live and die for their country, America."

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Chicago, Feb. 5.—Assertions that at least for the present the loading and shipment of breadstuffs and provisions purchased for the entente allies would continue as fast as supplies could reach the seaboard led today to a sharp advance in the May delivery of wheat, which also bullishly affected by a notable increase of the United States visible supply total. The extreme advance amounted to 5 7-8c a bushel, May touching 1 74 1-1 as against 1,68 3-8 at the finish on Saturday. More distant options than May were lifted only 1 to 1 1-2 cents.

BERNSTORFF AND SUITE WILL GO TO CUBA SOON

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Washington, Feb. 5.—Arrangements are being made for all German consuls and consular officials in the United States to accompany Count von Bernstorff and the German embassy staff out of the country. The whole party—more than 300 in all—probably will go via Cuba and Spain.

Dr. Paul Ritter, Swiss minister, now in charge of German diplomatic interests here is conducting negotiations with Assistant Secretary Phillips of the state department for the departure of the German staffs.

The counselor of the Swiss legation conferred today with Secretary Phillips and it was said that the plans were being delayed only while information of steamship and transportation facilities were being gathered. The first step is to mobilize all the German consular forces in time to join Count von Bernstorff's party.

At first it had been planned for the party to leave on some steamer sailing from New York but after further consideration it was thought better, in view of the circumstances that the departure be made from some less thickly settled community.

Under the tentative plans the consuls and their families will go to Havana by way of Key West, from various parts of the country while the embassy staff will go directly south from Washington. A Spanish steamship large enough to accommodate all Germans is due to sail from Havana for Spain February 20, but it is considered probable all the party will arrive in the Cuban capital several days before that time.

From Spain it is planned for the party to go to Switzerland either by rail through France or by steamer to Italy and then by rail. In either case safe conducts will be required for the party and probably will be secured by the United States.

It also was learned today that Count von Bernstorff and members of his staff will take with them when they depart only their personal belongings All the furniture and fixtures in the embassy will be left behind.

TO AVOID DANGER NEUTRALS MUST KEEP OUT OF NAVAL ZONE

High Officials in Kaiser's Family Declare That Teutons Can Not Relinquish This Weapon, The Only One Promising a Speedy End To The War

"HOPE AMERICAN SHIPS AVOID DANGER AREA"

Prospects Slight For Continuance of Peace Between Germany and America After Departure of Ambassadors, Berlin Officials Believe, and the Government is Keenly Disappointed Over the Words of President Wilson, But Will Not Alter Its Course Which Was Decided Upon After Entente Rejected Wilhelm's Proffer of Peace

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Berlin, Sunday, Feb. 4, via London, Feb. 5.—Prospects of peaceful continuance of German-American relations after the departure of the respective embassies at Washington and Berlin in the sense indicated by President Wilson in his address to congress, appears to be very slight judging by all the information, some of the highest authenticity, gathered by The Associated Press.

It was stated positively in high political circles that the German orders for the conduct of a submarine war could not and would not be modified; that in Germany the determination to enforce the prohibited zone order was absolute and final and that the only security for shipping was in avoidance of the prohibited zone.

Germany, so The Associated Press was informed, resorted to this measure after the "shameful" rejection by the entente proffers of peace overtures and only after the fullest determination and as the imperative weapon in defense of its threatened interests; Germany cannot relinquish this weapon—the only one promising a speedy end to the war—reluctant as Germany was to take this step.

The government had hoped that the United States would see it in this light and was and is actuated by no animosity to the United States in its determination. Germany therefore, so the high informant of The Associated Press continued, is very keenly disappointed and grieved by the terms of Mr. Wilson's message, but the government cannot alter or modify the course upon which it has determined. This official added.

"We can only hope and trust that American ships and American citizens will avoid the danger zones laid down in the German memorandum."

ACTION TO BE DELIBERATE

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Washington, Feb. 5.—While the United States awaits the issue of war or peace, President Wilson has taken steps that the conduct of the government during the tense period of waiting shall be one of calm deliberation and beyond criticism.

The American government, it was stated officially, will be very careful to see that Germany and all other foreign governments will have no just cause for complaint.

General instructions have been issued to federal government officials in all parts of the country to avoid hasty action and do nothing not strictly legal and within the province of the government.

The government, it was pointed out, has no legal right to take over war bound merchant ships in Americans harbors.

Strict legal right must be the basis for the conduct of all federal officers under the announced policy of the government

No matter what other nations may do in the present emergency, it was stated that the United States will adhere strictly to law and do nothing under stress of excitement which it would not be legal to do in ordinary times.

As outlined in the highest official quarters the policy of the government will be to act on principle rather than on the ground of expediency. The federal authorities will be expected by President Wilson to avoid any act that might be considered questionable.

The president himself, it was stated, is moving without panic or haste and expects all subordinate officers of the government to do likewise While not stated specifically it became known that the president is particularly anxious to warn Americans generally to do nothing which might cause trouble. He desires that every act of the United States in this super-crisis shall be with absolute propriety.

If war comes he wants no possible blame attached to the American government or any of its officials or people.

PASSED OVER VETO

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Washington, Feb. 5.—(Bulletin).—The senate late today by a vote of 62 to 19 repassed the immigration bill over the veto of the president, despite a warning from the state department that the Asiatic exclusion section might result in disturbing amicable relations with Japan.

The measure containing the literacy test fought over for 20 years and vetoed by three presidents now becomes a law.

"WHO IS NEUTRAL NOW? NOBODY," SAYS FRENCHMAN

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Paris, Feb 5.—"President Wilson has accepted Germany's challenge," says Georges Leygues, president of the foreign affairs committee of the chamber of deputies, in a statement given out here for publication.

"This act, accomplished with calmness and firmness, is characteristic of the eminent statesman who presides over the great American republic. It is an event of immense political significance.

"The near future will show us what will be the economic and military consequence but the mere fact that the greatest and most pacific of neutral peoples declared before the world that concern for its dignity and security obliges it to break with Germany is most important. It is probable other peoples will answer the moving appeal of Mr. Wilson and rally beside the United States to impose on the central empires respect for their rights, and for the elementary laws of humanity."

These words of M. Leygues represent in a nutshell the best opinion in France, as expressed by responsible citizens and by newspapers. Among other commentators, Joseph Reinach says in the Figaro: "There would have been no more America if the Washington government had resigned itself to Germany's threats. It was impossible. Uncle Sam has drawn himself up to his full height. Even the patience of good giants has a limit."

Former President Wier Clemenceau writes in l'Homme En Chaine: "An inflexible logic carries America and Germany henceforth toward unavoidable acts. Neither one can draw back. It will be Germany's war against the whole world."

Gustav Thery writes in the Meuse: "Without looking for hidden meanings and reservations in the clear discourse of President Wilson we are perhaps nearer to intervention than appears on the surface." The Meuvre asked yesterday: "'Who is neutral now?' Mr. Wilson has just replied, 'Nobody.'"

Gustav Herve says in the Victoire. "President Wilson has just written his name in the history of mankind beside the immortal names of Washington and Lincoln. Hurrah for Wilson! Hurrah for the great American people!"

DU PONT PLANT TURNED OVER TO U. S. GOVERNMENT

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Wilmington, Del., Feb. 5.—With the plants of the du Pont Powder company placed at its disposal in the event of hostilities, as authoritatively announced last night, the United States government's facilities for the manufacture of powder and other high explosives would be enormously increased. Since the start of the European war the company has been compelled to make constant additions to its plants in order to fill large contracts from the entente allies and at the present time is said to be in position to render more effective service than at any time in its history.

Estimates as to the aggregate daily output of its various plants were not available, but the Carney's Point, N. J., works alone are capable of turning out daily more than a million pounds of smokeless powder. The black powder mills of the company are scattered for miles along the Brandywine creek, beginning at the outskirts of this city, while the fuse works in South Wilmington are turning out hundreds of thousands of fuses every month for use in shrapnel. In addition to these plants the company owns a number of others in various sections of the country.

During the past two years the number of employes at the Carney's Point plant has been increased from 2,500 to nearly 20,000 and proportionate increases have been made at other plants. The company's orders from the entente allies have aggregated hundreds of millions of dollars.

STOCKS SHOWING SLIGHT GAIN ON OPENING TODAY

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

New York, Feb. 5.—Wall street began today in a mood more serious than at any time since the beginning of the war.

Developments over Sunday suggesting the extent of the precautions taken throughout the country brought the financial community to a further realization of the grave conditions resulting from the diplomatic break with Germany.

The heads of big banks, banking houses and financial interests generally were early at their desks, many having been in frequent conference with their associates since last Saturday.

On the stock exchange the attendance despite the storm was larger than any day since the memorable first day of August, 1914, when the exchange entered upon an enforced and prolonged period of suspension. Among the members on the floor today were many veterans who ordinarily conduct their operations through junior brokers.

The tone of the market at the opening was strong with gains of 1 to 3 points in American Smelting, Lackawanna Steel, Utah Copper, Central Leather, Erie and Columbia Gas.

United States Steel made an initial gain of 2 points at 106 on its offering of 2500 shares.

Bethlehem Steel old stock rose 15 points to 415 while the new stock was off 3 points. American Can showed some heaviness with minor specialties.

After a brief breathless spell just before noon the market gathered fresh impetus, steel leading the more active issues to levels above those reached in the forenoon. Steel advanced to 108 1-4. Sales to one o'clock amounted to about 1,000,000 shares.

DANIELS PLANS TO MAKE NAVY READY FOR WAR

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Washington, Feb. 5.—Further steps to make the navy ready were planned today by Secretary Daniels at conference with Chairman Padgett of the house naval committee chiefs of all bureaus and assistants.

In a general way plans include new legislation to empower the president to take over shipbuilding and munition plants and other private concerns which might be of value to the army and navy.

Indications are that the navy department would decide in the event of war to put building energies of the country to quick construction of submarines and submarine chasers. Under this theory it is held here that in case of war with Germany only sporadic light cruiser attack and submarine operations would be expected. Virtually all shipbuilders and many munition plants have already reported to the navy department their readiness to take up any policy the government proposes.

MUNITIONS PLANT UNDER HEAVY GUARD; NAVY YARD ACTIVE

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Philadelphia, Feb. 5.—The tension created here by the crisis between the United States and Germany has resulted in a strengthening of guard lines about all government property and the munition plants.

Plants of tremendous military importance are located in and near this city including the Frankford and Schuylkill arsenals and the big armament plants that are turning out thousands of tons of war materials. All of these places are now under heavy guard. Government agents are eliminating all "undesirables."

Policemen and officers in civilian clothes, are on duty at the postoffice, the custom house, the quartermaster's depot and the two arsenals.

Commandant Russell, of the navy yard, denied himself today to everyone but naval officers. The usual Sunday rest periods were rescinded yesterday. Every marine and bluejacket in the yard was either at drill or helping to load supplies on warships. The battleships Missouri and Minnesota are said to be practically ready for sea duty as is the cruiser Wisconsin. The battleship Ohio and the destroyer Paulding will be ready in a few days.

A strong guard was being maintained today around the German liners Rhaetia and Prinz Oskar and the Austrian merchantmen Franconia, whose crews were ordered confined aboard their vessels.

Shipping men continue to disregard the new sea peril and announced that several steamers would sail from this port today for the war zone.

The Philadelphia military training corps, drawn from members of the Drexel-Biddle Bible classes, have offered its services in the event of war of Governor Brumbaugh. Twelve thousand members of the Bible classes signified their willingness to volunteer.

CREWS VIRTUALLY PRISONERS ABOARD INTERNED VESSELS

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

New York, Feb. 5.—Nearly 2000 officers and men, remnants of the crews of the 25 German merchant ships which were laid up here at the beginning of the ware, are virtually prisoners today on board their vessels. The federal authorities explained that the German seamen were "forcibly detained, but simply required to remain on their ships." Members of the crews however, who returned from shore leave last night and today were notified by the policemen and federal detectives on guard at the German line piers that if they went aboard they would have to stay there.

Collector Mann of the port of New York let it be known that his guards were stationed to prevent the German sailors from violating the immigration laws by deserting their ships and staying ashore without passing the customary immigration inspection. His action however started a fresh crop of rumors.

Mr. Malone denied that the government contemplated "seizing" the German ships. It was pointed out that since these vessels were peaceful merchantmen and not ships of war such an act would be contrary to international law. It is the status of the Germans aboard the ships, said Mr. Malone, which is causing the federal authorities some anxiety.

Captain Julius Gubaur, formerly commander of the Vaterland and now in command of the Pennsylvania of the Hamburg-American line, announced that he would apply today for papers as an American citizen.

The steamship St. Louis of the American line which was booked to sail last Saturday was still at her pier today. Officials of the line said that the St. Louis would be held here awaiting further advices from Washington.

The Philadelphia of the same line passed Fastnet at 11 o'clock last night and should arrive at Liverpool, barring accidents, today.

GERMANY WILL NOW ASK FAVORS OF UNITED STATES

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Berlin, Feb. 4, Via London, Feb. 5.—The Associated Press learns authoritatively that Germany will propose to Ambassador Gerard a special re-ratification of the Prussian-American treaties of 1779 and 1812, allowing nationals in case of war nine months in which to settle their affairs and leave hostile countries. This step would positively insure Americans in Germany and Germans in America against internment if hostilities break out and would prevent a precipitate exodus from either country such as was general in Europe when the war began.

A representative of the foreign office pointed out to a correspondent of the Associated Press that the ancient treaties between the United States and Prussia were still in effect and contained a clause, contrary to the usual rule, that they should not be invalidated by the outbreak of hostilities. This official said that so far as he was informed Germany would hold to these treaties and that there would be no question of interning Americans in Germany in case of war.

In official quarters there seemed to be anxiety to reassure the few Americans still here on the questions of internment. Scores of Americans have applied since Wednesday for the necessary military permission to leave the country but this involves a delay of at least a fortnight. Others, including long time residents whose entire interests are in Germany plan to remain no matter what happens.

GERMANS ARE LAID OFF BY SHIP BUILDERS.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Newport News, Feb. 5.—As a precautionary measure all German employes who have not become naturalized citizens of the United States are being laid off by the Newport News Ship Building and Dry Dock company. Ample measures to protect the yard, especially the battleship Mississippi, recently launched, have been taken.

Roads in Olden Days.

A curious illustration of the lack of any systematic authority over the roads in England, even as late as the fifteenth century, is preserved in the records of the manor of Aylesbury. A local miller, named Richard Boose, needed some ramming clay for the repair of his mill. Accordingly—we learn from "Old Country Inns"—his servants dug a great pit in the middle of the road, ten feet wide and eight feet deep, and so left it to become filled with water from the winter rains. A glover from Leighton Buzzard on his way home from market, fell in and was drowned. Charged with manslaughter, the miller pleaded that he had no place wherein to get the kind of clay he required except on the highroad. He was acquitted.

Hair Often Ruined By Washing With Soap

Soap should be used very carefully, if you want to keep your hair looking its best. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and ruins it.

The best thing for steady use is just ordinary mulsified cocoanut oil (which is pure and greaseless), and is better than the most expensive soap or anything else you can use.

One or two teaspoonfuls will cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft, and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get mulsified cocoanut oil at any pharmacy, it's very cheap, and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months.

CONSCRIPTION FAVORED BY TAFT IN NEW SPEECH

New York, Feb. 5.—Conscription to build up an army for the country's defense "now the war is on us" and for the future as well, was advocated here yesterday by former President William H. Taft in an address on the League to Enforce Peace before the Brooklyn Institute of Arts and Sciences.

"Stirred as the people are by enthusiasm" at the break with Germany, they would support a conscription measure, Mr. Taft believed, not only to meet the present situation but "for the future after the war shall end."

"Conscription until now," he said, "has been of 'doubtful expediency,' because popular opposition might have halted all plans for reasonable preparedness.

"Now the war is on us, however, now that the people see the necessity, why should we not take advantage of this state of public mind and do what justice and real democracy require? Military duty is part of every citizen's duty. In this country in the happy homes of prosperity, I fear many of the people have lost the vital sense of their obligations to the government.

"Very little service of any kind has been exacted from the great body of the people. Conscription is needed to discipline our native young men and to teach them respect for authority. It is needed to teach our 1,000,000 of newly-created citizens loyalty. Stirred as they are by enthusiasm, spurred as they are by immediate necessity, they would support Congress in enacting a conscription law making provision not only for the present but for the future after the war shall end."

SPAIN WILL WARN GERMANY AGAINST ACTS OF VIOLENCE.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Paris, February 5, 5:15 a. m.—Alejandro Lerroux, Spanish deputy and leader of the republican party in Barcelona, interviewed here today, declared that Spain should protest energetically against the German submarine campaign and make clear her intention to defend herself if necessary. "Spain possesses," said Deputy Lerroux, "the means of making herself fully respected. She can say, and will say, to Germany: 'Halt, you have here 100,000 of your compatriots, fifty of your ships lie helpless in our ports and you have besides important material interests in Spain; therefore avoid all acts likely to affect the lives and interests of Spaniards.'

"Should there be a diplomatic rupture between Spain and Germany—you will note that I hesitate to say that there will be—there is one thing that should be remembered.

"If Spain recalls her ambassador from Berlin the last representative of a great country disappears from that capital. In the interests even of the entente some one ought to remain in Germany as an authoritative witness of the violations of the law of nations and the barbarities which are evidently going to be committed. Who can protest against them in the name of the civilized world. There must be some one to defend the prisoners and the unhappy populations of the invaded territory and those who have been deported.

"Spanish policy, in my opinion, should dictate a reply protesting energetically against German pretensions and making clear our intention to defend ourselves. The same time our representative at Berlin should remain there to continue his work of humanity and justice. That of course could only last until our national honor was insulted. However, the world thanks America today for having won a victory for justice, a certain prelude to the victory of arms which I look for."

MR. THOMPSON APPRECIATES HIS RECEPTION HERE.

Arthur W. Thompson, vice president of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, in a letter from the Hotel Biltmore, New York City, to the Newark Chamber of Commerce, thanks the organization and its officers for the cordial reception given him last week.

That Mr. Thompson has in mind the pledges he gave at that meeting and which means so much to Newark's future, is evidenced by these excerpts from his letter:

"You may rest assured that we are going to do everything possible to carry out our promises to assist in locating an industry in Newark between now and summer.

"I will probably write you in the near future about the matter of elimination of grade crossings."

GREAT INTEREST TAKEN IN NEWS.

Because of the extraordinary interest taken in the international crisis, the Advocate kept its Associated Press operator, Mr. Bidgood, on the telegraph wire yesterday and furnished news to the public throughout the day.

As this newspaper was the first to announce through its bulletin service the severance of diplomatic relations with Germany on Saturday, it was also first in publishing through its night extra the sinking of the American steamer, Housatonic. All day yesterday the Advocate telephones rang incessantly and by means of the telephone the people of Newark and throughout the county were advised all day of the latest dispatches as they were ticked over the Associated Press telegraph wire in this office.

18 MILLION MEN AVAILABLE FOR MILITARY SERVICE

New York, Feb. 5.—In a serious emergency nearly 18,000,000 men are available for military service in the United States, according to an estimate made by the executive committee of Mayor Mitchell's committee on national defense. There are now physically fit for service in the field, it was said, 10,535,940 men between the ages of 18 and 45 years.

Upon the basis of actual experience of other countries where universal military training prevails, the committee has calculated that out of 900,000 men annually reaching military age in the United States, 690,000 are fit for military service according to French standard of 1910, and 459,000 according to the German standard of that year.

The committee, in estimating the nation's resources in men between 18 and 45 years available for military service after deductions for "morbidity," physical defects, industrial necessities and dependency of families, places the number at 4,778,050.

FACES ARE FROZEN ENROUTE TO FIRE IN CASE AVENUE.

Riding on the motor driven ladder truck in response to an alarm of fire with the thermometer about 10 degrees below zero this morning, Firemen Felix Vandergrift and John Kerrigan of central station, had their faces severely frozen, and all the other men suffered greatly, during two hours' work in putting out a fire in the Everett flats on Case avenue.

These flats are tenanted by foreigners and last night in the south end of the building there was a dance which lasted until late. Some of the men upon their return to their room built a roaring fire in the stove and went to bed.

The superheated flue set fire to the joists and this traveled between the ceiling of the first story and the floor of the second southward, involving three flats which were badly damaged. The loss to the building will probably reach $200, which is insured, while no estimate was made of the loss on the contents.

OLD NEWSPAPERS MORE VALUABLE FOR REFERENCE LIBRARY.

Columbus, O., Feb. 5.—Newspapers published in Ohio 50 years ago are of much more value for the reference library than are the newspapers of the present day, according to C. B. Galbraith, state librarian.

"We can refer to the newspapers printed half a century ago and find out what the legislature did in those days because they gave full details of all bills before the general assembly and always in the same position in the papers," said Galbraith, "but it is difficult to find full and complete accounts of the proceedings of the legislature in the newspapers printed in the last ten or fifteen years.

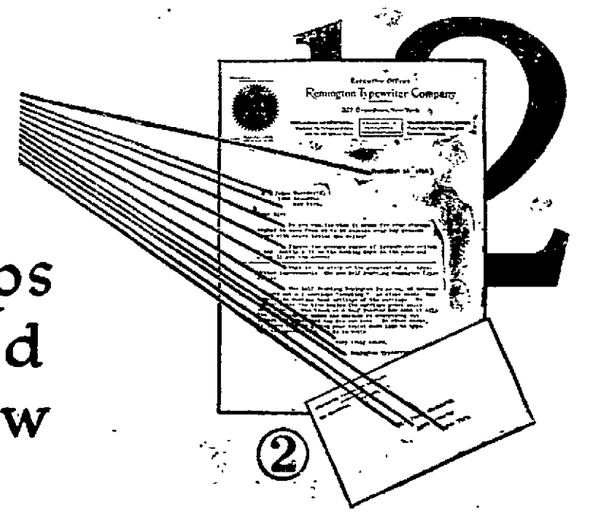

"It is probably due to the fact that the public demands bigger headlines and news told in a concise and interesting manner rather than the chronicling of news in a routine manner."

America First

Provided the boats are painted as the Kaiser directs, lighted as he prescribes, loaded as he permits and provided further that the vessels pursue a stipulated course, land at a particular point, upon a specified day and leave England when told to do so, the Emperor of Germany has served notice that free America may send one ship a week to England.

The penalty for violating the Kaiser's rules will be the destruction of American property and American lives. Emperor William has said that his submarines without regard to the principles of international law will destroy all neutral vessels that come in his way unless they obey the rules he has laid down.

The United States government has dismissed the German ambassador, has recalled the American representative from Berlin, has seized some of the interned German vessels and in consequence faces the most critical period in its history since the days of '61.

America today is balancing on the brink of war for history fails to record a single instance where the severance of diplomatic relations between first class powers has not been followed by a clash at arms, and yet this may prove to be the happy exception to the rule. It will be the exception providing Germany reconsiders its ill-advised plan to conduct its campaign without regard to the rules of civilized warfare.

Regretfully, yet with a clear conscience, the United States has taken the step which President Wilson said months ago would be taken if Germany renewed its ruthless submarine campaign. Should Germany attack an American boat which is pursuing its peaceful mission on the high sea, a declaration of war will quickly follow. While America has hesitated—and who is not glad that this country has waited?—we are a hundred million strong shoulder to shoulder with the President now. There is nobody now to question his course. Party lines have been obliterated and German-Americans whose sympathy has naturally been for Germany as against England are today found to be standing for America as against the Fatherland. Newspapers everywhere, German as well as English papers published in this country show that the sentiment is unanimous. Everywhere is heard the most cordial expression for the great German people but Prussian militarism as exemplified in the Kaiser who seeks to win the war without regard to human rights must be overthrown. America still hopes it may be spared the horrors of war but if war is necessary to preserve our liberty the lives and treasure to accomplish the purpose will be sacrificed in order that free America may live.

Submarine War.

As a result of the unrestricted submarine campaign, Berlin believes the amount of tonnage sunk each month can be increased to about one million tons. This expectation is based upon available figures showing the total amount of British tonnage, estimated at eleven to twelve million tons.

Statistics are cited showing the actual, not theoretical, traffic in British ports from July to September amounted to 6,750,000 tons, carried in British vessels. In addition it is reported that the neutral and Entente vessels other than British entering British ports during that period brought the total tonnage up to approximately 10,750,000 tons.

And considerable reduction of this tonnage, it is claimed in Germany, would limit England's supply of breadstuffs so critically as to force peace within a few months.

On the other hand, if the United States should be drawn into the war as now seems probable, Berlin foresees a prolongation of the war and, as a conclusion, Europe completely exhausted and America weakened, while Japan's military strength, they assert, virtually would be unimpaired and her financial resources vastly increased.

The severance of diplomatic relations between first class powers has always heretofore been followed by war, though it is possible of course that the present strained relations may prove to be an exception to the rule.

Newark-Utica Road.

There comes an insistent demand from residents along the Utica-Newark road for its improvement. Attention is called to the contrasting facts that there is not a rod of improved road from the county seat leading toward the most populous town in the county, and the recent action of the commissioners who have granted a 60-foot entirely new road from Hebron to Buckeye Lake Park, three miles, which will make necessary a big bridge over South Fork of Licking, and another smaller bridge. There is already a road from Hebron to the Park 3.9 miles long, nearly all good gravel and limestone—more than a mile of it concrete. The new road to the lake will be of value to the people of the entire community and there is no criticism over its construction.

The question of improving the road to Utica gains in importance to Newark business men, in view of the offer of D. P. Campbell to donate brick for five miles of paving from Utica toward Mt. Vernon. It can be seen very plainly why the Knox county business men are enthusiastic over the proposition of Mr. Campbell, as they realize that it would bring to their city much of the trade that otherwise would go to Newark from Utica and from the Martinsburg pike territory.

ASTRONOMICAL EVENTS.

Constellation Bootes rises northeast late in the evening. Planet Saturn 48 minutes north of the moon; sets an hour before sunrise. Mercury seen bright, rising before the sun.

Equal Suffrage.

Both the Republican and the Democratic parties in this state pledged themselves to equal suffrage last year. The presidential suffrage bill was passed by the House of Representatives a few days ago and now comes before the Ohio Senate for action. As equal suffrage was indorsed by both parties it is altogether probable that the measure will pass the Senate and in that event the law will not be vetoed by Governor Cox.

Protect the Quail.

The quail is one of our most useful and most beautiful birds. Its "bob-bob white" is a delight to the ear. "Bob White"" ought to be protected 365 days every year. In fact the quail belongs in the song bird class and the Ohio legislature ought to put it there.

Will the South American republics, Holland, Spain, Switzerland, Denmark, Norway and Sweden join with the United States in upholding international law and in denouncing the Kaiser's program of unrestricted submarine warfare? Whether they do or not, America has served notice through severing its diplomatic reations with Germany that this country insists upon conducting war upon the principles of recognized law.

We all want to stand by the President in the existing crisis, as Mr. Hughes urges, but it is essential that we should know where the standing is to be done.—Cleveland Leader.

Isn't it about time for the elimination of sneering paragraphs?

Movies, the Great Diversion

(Pittsburgh Gazette Times.)

Whatever is said of the movies, they do divert. For a nickel or a dime you pass into Never-Never Land, leaving your troubles at the door. Those Count von Bernstorff attended Thursday afternoon while the international situation was becoming more and more ominous were German views of the war, according to reports, but they were movies just the same and served to divert the ambassador's mind from the important business in hand. Certainly no other one form of entertainment has enjoyed the same popularity or made the wide appeal to all classes of people. Some may argue music, but this hardly holds, as enjoyment of music is not universal; many children show no response to or interest in it and some men seem distressed when they are compelled to listen. Not so with the films, they take their devotees quite young and include the aged as long as eyesight continues. They are our great diversion.

The word "movie" seems to have come to stay, at least until we find a better one. Cinema, which the British use, does not catch on here although it would do. Moving picture is a little too long for common use; movie is slangy but expressive and like many another little street word, has been taken into the best homes. After all, what should we call the pictures if not movies?

The Literacy Test Again.

(Chicago News.)

For the second time President Wilson has vetoed a bill restricting immigration because it contains a provision designed to exclude from the United States persons who cannot read or write. Bills containing similar provisions were vetoed by Presidents Cleveland and Taft.

The literacy test, as President Wilson says in his veto message, constitutes a radical change in the policy of the nation, a change which is not justified in principle. He adds: "It is not a test of character, of quality or of personal fitness, but would operate in most cases merely as a penalty for lack of opportunity in the country whence the alien seeking admission came. The opportunity to gain an education is in many cases one of the chief opportunities sought by the immigrant in coming to the United States, and our experience in the past has not been that the illiterate immigrant is as such an undesirable immigrant.

Among the nations having a high percentage of illiteracy is Russia. Yet the Russian people are eager for education. In their case the illiteracy is markedly due to lack of opportunity. Exclusion of Russian illiterates from the United States would close the door of opportunity upon many deserving persons who seek entrance to this country in order to secure for their children educational advantages denied them under the autocratic rule of the czar's officials.

It is asserted that congress is likely to override the veto of the president, making the measure a law in spite of him. Such action would be most injurious. The agitation in favor of the bill is not conducted in defense of American ideals and institutions, but in derogation of them.

Grave and Gay.

(No. 43718 Ohio Pen News.)

In the spring the young man's fancy lightly turns to—London farm.

When in doubt,—don't.

The boys on the border of Mexico are filled with a yearning desire to go home. There are others.

Some fellows think they are dignified when they are only surly.

Many of us, no doubt, would not tell a lie to save a friend, but when it comes to ourselves, well, that's another story.

On the Sea of Life there are many stowaways who try to make the trip across without paying their passage.

There comes a time in the life of the average young fellow when the bump of egotism commences to shrink, and he begins to realize that, perhaps, after all, it is possible that he does not "know it all." From thenceforth he begins to acquire wisdom.

Germany's answer to President Wilson's address to the Senate is, in effect, a declaration of war against the United States.—New York World.

The President's Course

(By Prof. W. H. Johnson, Denison University.)

After a patience hardly paralleled in the history of civilized nations, President Wilson has been forced to break diplomatic relations with the Imperial Government of Germany. It was necessary either to do that or to submit to demands which could not have been accepted without practically giving up our position as an independent power.

If Germany could establish a blockade of England, France and Russia of such a nature as civilized nations have been willing to recognize, under the laws of war, she would have that right. The laws of war require that vessels of commerce entering blockaded territory shall have due warning before they are fired upon, and that provisions shall be made for safety of crews and passengers. Their cargoes may be seized under certain conditions, the ships themselves may be sunk under certain conditions; but the blockading power must make actual investigation to see that these conditions exist, and due provision for the safety of the passengers and crews is in all cases obligatory, unless the ship should make forcible resistance. These regulations the British blockade has scrupulously adhered to. These regulations our own government scrupulously adhered to during the Civil War. To violate them is not legitimate warfare but brutal savagery. It is useless for the Kaiser to say that he is driven to such action to save his country from destruction. It will not save his country, but only make its utter defeat all the more certain. The limitations on the brutality of warfare which he now proposes to sweep away are the hard earned fruits of centuries of advance in civilization. The modern world will not give them up, and the government that cannot live in accordance with them cannot live at all. The whole structure of modern civilization demands not the sweeping away but the strengthening of international law, and if the Hohenzollern dynasty cannot conform itself to that necessity, then the Hohenzollern dynasty will go down to speedy and irreparable ruin. But the Hohenzollern dynasty is one thing and the German nation is another. As a matter of course, the people of Germany have been loyal to the Kaiser during the war. So long as he can persuade them that there is any hope of success, they will remain loyal to him. When once they fully realize the ruin to which his mad leadership is swiftly and inevitably leading them, they will see that there is one duty higher and holier than loyalty to the Hohenzollern dynasty; and that is duty to the whole German people.

Within the first two or three days of the war, my closest German friend said to me, "The Kaiser is crazy!" He has modified his view somewhat since that time, but it was an opinion to which he and many other Germans will return. The Kaiser is not insane in the ordinary technical sense of the term, but absolutely so in a higher and much more tragical sense. His unsoundness lies in his determination to regard himself as above the laws which other men make and consent to respect. As the modern world is constituted, there is only one of two alternatives for the ruler of a great power who fills his mind with that theory and proceeds to act upon it: He will either go down to ruin, and drag his people along as far as they are willing to go with him, or fight his way to a practical dictatorship of the liberties and destinies of the whole world. Does the world intend to accept the Kaiser as its dictator? What sane man believes it? Does he really aspire to any such power? His own words furnish the answer. Within a week he has said to free America, "You may send one ship a week into England, painted as I say it shall be painted, lighted as I say it shall be lighted, following the route which I say it shall follow, landing at the harbor at which I say it shall land, entering on the day on which I say it shall enter, leaving the day on which I say it shall leave, carrying the cargo which I say it may carry." And what is the penalty for refusing this dictation? Not search and seizure according to the principles of international law, but the possibility of the deadly torpedo from an unseen submarine, carrying non-combatant men, women and children indiscriminately to their death. If Wilson had agreed to any such preposterous demand, there would have been no free America. It is not merely in the interests of America that every German-American should stand loyally behind the President in his resistance, but in the interests of the German people themselves. The ruin that such mad folly must bring to the Kaiser himself is of little comparative importance. The harm that he is doing to the great German people is a tragedy from which the whole world must suffer.

Spirit of the Press

Hughes Supports Wilson.

In his address to the alumni of Brown University, Charles Evans Hughes bids his hearers and, through the press, the public to "stand loyally behind the President, without a partisan thought," in maintaining "the rights and honor" of the United States. It is the thought of a patriot in the phrase of a gentleman. Mr. Taft is showing the country how a former President should comport himself toward a grave national emergency confronting his successor. Mr. Hughes is his rival in public gratitude for showing how an unsuccessful candidate for the Presidency at such a time as this would think and speak.—New York World.

Austria's Ambassador.

The arrival in this country of Count Tarnowski, the new Austrian Ambassador, within a few hours of the receipt of the German note looks like a piece of irony perpetrated by one ally at the expense of another. In the past Vienna has associated itself with Berlin in its military and naval policies. Presumably it does in the latest move. Is it possible that it sent the new Ambassador merely for the benefit to his health that he might derive from the sea voyage?—New York World.

U-Boat Warfare.

The severance of diplomatic relations with Germany means, first, that this nation does not and will not approve the methods of sea warfare upon which Germany and her allies have agreed: that it will neither consent to nor ignore the use of submarines for the destruction of all ships, whether belligerent or neutral, that appear in the waters included in the war zone, and the lives of those who may be traveling in them. It means that we are not prepared to throw away all international law, written in common humanity, and accept instead the code of a belligerent that finds it cannot win without destroying and killing indiscriminately.—Columbus Sunday Dispatch.

Break With Germany.

It has at last come to a break with Germany. This nation cannot consent to proposed restriction of her rights upon the high seas. Much less can it remain passive and indifferent under any such ruthless warfare on neutral ships and the non-combatants who may travel in them. The spirit of responsibility of a belligerent for the welfare and safety of nobody but its own cannot be countenanced. No nation can, without protest, throw away all international law. * * * This nation does not want war, but there are some things that are worse. * * * There can be no doubt that party lines have been effaced and the 100,000,000 people of the republic are behind the president and congress in what it may be found necessary to do.—Columbus Dispatch.

That traces are found of the four great walls built by the Roman conquerors in Great Britain? Two were built by Agricola the first in A. D. 79 and the second in A. D. 81, extending from the Frith of Forth to the Frith of Clyde. As this proved insufficient to keep back the northern barbarians, Hadrian in A. D. 120 finished the most famous of all the walls from the Solway to Newcastle-on-the-Tyne. This was sixty-eight English miles in length. In A. D. 209 Severus built another wall a few yards above that of Hadrian which was guarded by 10,000 men.

What To Do When Baby Has The Croup

Pennsylvania Mother Advises Use of "External" Treatment —VapoRub.

A Jolly Penna. Baby

What to do when baby has the croup is a serious matter in every home. In the South the universal treatment is a good rub over the throat and chest with Vick's VapoRub Salve. The body warmth releases the ingredients in the form of vapors that, inhaled with each breath, quickly relieve the breathing. In addition, Vick's is absorbed through and stimulates the skin, relaxing the nervous tension and taking away the tightness and soreness.

Last winter Mrs. W. M. Rosenberger, 128 W. Broad St., Souderton, Pa., tried Vick's VapoRub for the first time, and writes—

"I have used Vick's VapoRub on my baby when he has had croup and colds in his throat and chest, and it has helped him wonderfully. I think it is the best thing of its kind I have ever used, and always want some in the house."

In addition to croup and colds, Vick's will be found useful in a hundred ways in the home as a salve—for burns, bruises, itchings, etc. Three sizes, 25c, 50c or $1.00.

MUSTEROLE—QUICK RELIEF! NO BLISTER!

It Soothes and Relieves Like a Mustard Plaster Without the Burn or Sting

Musterole is a clean, white ointment, made with the oil of mustard. It does all the work of the old-fashioned mustard plaster—does it better and does not blister. You do not have to bother with a cloth. You simply rub it on—and usually the pain is gone!

Many doctors and nurses use Musterole and recommend it to their patients. They will gladly tell you what relief it gives from sore throat, bronchitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frosted feet, colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia).

PIMPLY? WELL, DON'T BE!

A pimply face will not embarrass you much longer if you get a package of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The skin should begin to clear after you have taken the tablets a few nights.

Cleanse the blood, the bowels and the liver with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the successful substitute for calomel—there's never any sickness or pain after taking them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do that which calomel does, and just as effectively, but their action is gentle and safe instead of severe and irritating.

No one who takes Olive Tablets is ever cursed with "a dark brown taste," a bad breath, a dull, listless, "no good" feeling, constipation, torpid liver, bad disposition or pimply face.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color.

Dr. Edwards spent years among patients afflicted with liver and bowel complaints, and Olive Tablets are the immensely effective result.

Milady's Boudoir

The Beautiful Mouth.

If your mouth is defective, improve the shape of your lips by avoiding careless habits. Many pretty women are disfigured by careless habits of mouthing their words, of chewing their lips, of ridiculous contortions while they talk.

The time to train our mouths to beauty is in our infancy. Our mothers should begin the work, and when we have reached years of intelligence—we should carry it forward.

If the mouth is too large it can be trained to lesser size by tender pinching of the corners. This makes the line at the corners almost indeterminate, and diminishes the size. This must be most gently and tenderly done. Also train the lips to deepen their beauty cleft by pushing the middle portions together with the first fingers. This light pressure four or five times a day, when you are dressing in the morning and undressing at night, will marvellously refreshen the mouth.

The lips should be lightly massaged at night just before retiring. Do not use glycerine alone on the lips nor any other surface of the body. It is too drying. It has the power to draw moisture from the skin, and that moisture should be replaced by the water with which the glycerine is mixed.

As to color—the lips should not be too red. The normal lip should be the same color as the gums. So the lips shoud be a deep pink or a light red. Not blood red but three shades lighter than a steam of arterial blood. Preserve the color by keeping the body healthy. If the circulation is defective the lips will be pale. If we become anaemic, pallid lips will be one of the first signs of our state. To make them healthy red improve the tone of the system.

FOR RUN-DOWN PEOPLE

The condition of being "run-down" is one that doctors do not recognize as a disease; the physician of today who gets his training in a hospital where severe disorders only are encountered knows little about it. But those who are run-down in health know that it is not a fancied affliction.

The expression "run-down" comes from the feeble action of an unwound clock and the comparison is a good one. Applied to health it means a condition in which all the bodily functions are enfeebled. Appetite fails, the digestion is impaired, the nerves are impoverished, the complexion becomes pale, there is no animation but rather worry and mental depression. Fatigue is a constant symptom.

No particular organ being affected you must look for relief to the blood that circulates everywhere. Improvement in the blood is quickly felt throughout the entire system and Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are the best and most convenient blood builders. As the blood becomes rich and red, the various organs regain their tone and the body recovers its vigor. If you have any or all of the above symptoms try the tonic treatment with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Fifty cents a box at your druggists.

A SPRING TIP.

How to Plan and Win Success In Your Gardening.

There are few things more fascinating than the development of a well planned garden. True, it will mean many hours' manual labor to prevent the weeds and insects from ruining your early spring labors, and the watering can or the garden hose will have to be called into use frequently, but labor will pay large dividends in benefits to the gardener, to say nothing of the reduction in the weekly budget of the household.

The tomato vines will need to be tied up and watched for cut worms, the corn will have to be hoed and so will the beans; the lettuce will have to be transplanted and the beets thinned out, and there will be a hundred and one other precautions that will have to be taken to insure the proper results, but each operation will have its special benefits and lessons that will more than repay for the trouble.

And during the development of his garden the wise gardener will note his successes and defeats and store that information away for use the following year. Every failure will be an experience to be avoided the following year and every success an experience to be enlarged upon. He will learn things for himself, and every bit of knowledge gained in that way will be worth a whole chapter written for his benefit by some one else.

HOW TO PROTECT YOUR PIANO.—Half the pianos of this country catch colds exactly as we do. They get hoarse or have a cough or a stiff note or some similar complaint, which cannot be cured by home remedies, but which requires tedious and expensive doctoring. In order to prevent these avoidable ailments a piano should be kept in a moderately warm room, where the temperature is even, say 60 or 70 degrees, the year round, not cold one day and hot the next. The instrument should not, however, be too near the source of heat. It should be kept closed and covered with a felt cloth when not in use, particularly in frosty weather. Always place the piano close to but not against an inside wall.

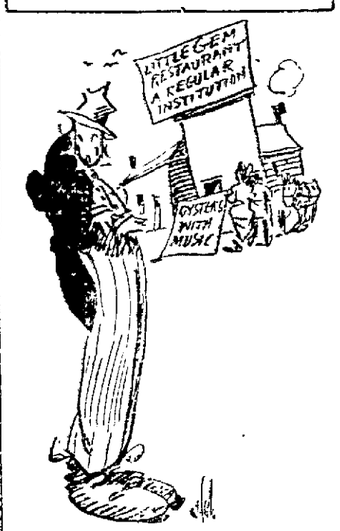

How to Fix Tears In Bronze Kid Shoes When the Children Stub Them.

Often when bronze kid shoes are almost new a small piece of the kid will get torn off or turn up and still remain hanging to the shoe. Straighten out the wrinkles, moisten the glue side of a postage stamp or envelope flap, apply quickly to both raw sides of the kid, press into place and hold firmly for a few minutes. The glue of the stamp or envelope flap is so evenly spread that there is no surplus amount to run on to the outside of the kid, making it sticky. This can also be used to mend most any kind of soft kid shoes.

How to Treat a Bad Headache That Comes From Nerves.

In cases of violent headaches it frequently acts as a great relief to bathe the forehead with a sponge wrung out of very hot water. Repeat this as often as the sponge cools. When the head feels rested dash on cold water, wipe dry and lie down for awhile, keeping the eyes closed. Next sit up and turn the head around from side to side slowly until tired. This will have a wonderfully beneficial effect on the circulation and will ward off headache if persisted in.

Granville

[Special to The Advocate]

Granville, Feb. 5.—About two hundred people braved the cold wind and the climb to Cleveland Hall on Saturday evening to participate in the first "Denison Day" celebration which was planned by President C. W. Chamberlain and Mayor C. D. Coons, for the pleasure of the Granville people. The audience assembled in Sherwin Hall and listened to a notable program of short speeches, which were announced by Mayor Coons. Prof. K. H. Eschman called upon the audience to rise and sing the National anthem, and never has "America" been sung with greater fervor. President Chamberlain, who was obliged to take a late train, appeared first instead of last on the program, as had been planned. A large chart was displayed on which the proposed buildings, grounds and streets were printed out and their use explained by Dr. Chamberlain. It is a stupendous undertaking and it was made plain to the audience that the committee is planning for the comfort and welfare of the village in every change proposed, as well as for the growth and development of the institution.

Mayor Coons in an eloquent but brief talk spoke of the ideals of the town as exemplified in the workings of its many efficient organizations, only about a dozen of which would it be possible to represent on one program. Contrary to the traditional prerogative of the ladies to be heard last, he would give them precedence, and first on the list of the women's organization he would call on the W. C. T. U., represented by Mrs. Lucy Van Kirk; second on the list came The King's Daughters, represented by Mrs. J. E. Megaw; The Travelers by Mrs. M. E. Stuckey; The Fortnightly by Mrs. Kate S. Hines; the Women's Music Club by Mrs. W. P. Ullman; the D. A. R., by Mrs. Ernest Shepardson; the G. F. C., by Miss Eva Robinson. (Miss Robinson was unable to be present on account of illness.) Among the organizations calling for responses from the men, were the G. A. R., which was given by J. V. Wood; the churches, by Rev. E. D. Barnes; the lodges, Burton Case; the public schools, Superintendent Cockayne; the Festival Association, K. H. Eschman; the Granville Library, W. A. Holmes; the Greater Granville Association, John S. Graham. Mr. Graham in a well constructed little speech, spoke of Denison University as Granville's one asset. Large cities consider their industries, factories, etc. Newark can boast of the largest stove foundry in the world, the largest glass manufactory and their products are shipped all over the globe, Granville has its university which turns out men of splendid principles and high ideals who go to the uttermost parts of the earth to exert an influence for good wherever a Denison man or woman is to be found. He pledged the organization to hearty co-operation with the college in every way possible.

On motion of Prof. W. H. Johnson, the mayor was authorized to name a committee which should formulate Granville-Denison club. This club to include all alumni in the county. With the singing of "To Denison," led by K. H. Eschman at the piano, the meeting adjourned.

An interesting feature of the entertainment was the reading by Mayor Coons of several telegrams from Denison clubs in various parts of the country.

It is Mr. and Mrs. James A. Huston who have returned to "Wilkenheim" on the Columbus road from a visit to San Diego, Cal., and not Mr. and Mrs. James A. Campbell as appeared in Saturday's columns.

Shortly before 8:00 o'clock last night and before the various churches had dismissed their congregations the fire bell sent out its dread summons. The mercury had dropped to zero and the wind was blowing a regular gale. The fire was found to be in the upper story of Belin's grocery store in North Prospect street, and but for the prompt action of the fire department with John Thomas as chief, serious loss would have resulted. As it was, more damage was done by water than by the fire, and the entire loss is covered by insurance.

The characteristics of "The Honey Bee" were ably put forth by Ernest O. Root, Saturday evening before a large and interested audience, assembled in the Opera House. The lecturer was introduced by Charles B. White, a member of the library board. The industry of bee culture amounts to something like thirty millions of dollars annually and no orchardist should attempt to raise a crop without one or more colonies. Mr. Root handled the bees on the stage in a fearless though careful manner, one of his feats being to place about 3,000 of the insects in his hat which he carried through the aisles for inspection, then to place the hat on his head while he walked down the aisle. Removing the hat he carefully lifted out a handful of the buzzing little community. Many of the audience remained for a talk with Mr. Root after the conclusion of the lecture.

Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Nichols had as house guests on Sunday, Mr. J. Edgar Brown a former Granville merchant, now manager of a large furhouse in Edmonton, Canada. Mr. Brown who is enthusiastic in praise of the Dominion, came to Hebron from New York City, being summoned to that village by the illness and death of his mother last week.

Dr. L. E. Davis left for West Virginia today in response to a telegram apprising him of his mother's illness.

A FRIEND'S ADVICE

Woman Saved From a Serious Surgical Operation.

Louisville, Ky.—"For four years I suffered from female troubles, headaches, and nervousness. I could not sleep, had no appetite and it hurt me to walk. If I tried to do any work, I would have to lie down before it was finished. The doctors said I would have to be operated on and I simply broke down. A friend advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and the result is I feel like a new woman. I am well and strong, do all my own housework and have an eight pound baby girl. I know Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound saved me from an operation which every woman dreads."—Mrs. NELLIE FISHBACK, 1721 Christy Ave., Louisville, Ky.

Everyone naturally dreads the surgeon's knife. Sometimes nothing else will do, but many times Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has saved the patient and made an operation unnecessary.

If you have any symptom about which you would like to know, write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for helpful advice given free.

Voicing, Action Regulating, Player Pianos and Electric Pianos a Specialty

The requirements of modern piano tuning are so great and manifold, demanding of the instrument orchestral volume and variety of color as much as utmost delicacy, clearness and that pearly quality peculiar to the piano passage, that it is a most perplexing problem to the piano tuner to satisfy all the demands of the Twentieth Century pianist. I meet every conceivable wish of the most exacting artist. My tone regulating is a magnetic force which fascinates all music lovers.

BATHE INTERNALLY

OVER 500,000 PEOPLE ARE NOW DOING SO.

For many years physicians have agreed that the vast majority of human ills were caused by accumulated waste in the Lower Intestine, that in our present way of living Nature could not remove all this waste without assistance, no matter how regular we might be, and that the poison from this waste circulated through the blood pulled us away down below par and was responsible for many diseases of a serious nature.

During this time the "J. B. L. Cascade" for Internal Bathing has, because of their recommendation and those of its users, been steadily growing in favor.

Recently, however, the startling news which has been covering this country that great surgeons and specialists have been operating on the Lower Intestine for the most chronic and serious diseases has caused Americans to become thoroughly awake to the importance of keeping this Lower Intestine free from all poisonous waste matter, and over 500,000 are now using Internal bath.

If you try the "J. B. L. Cascade" you will find yourself always bright, confident and capable the—the poisonous waste makes us bilious, blue, dull and nervous. Internal Baths are Nature's own cure for Constipation—just water properly applied. Drugs force Nature—the "J. B. L. Cascade" gently assists her.

RELIEVED RHEUMATICS ENTHUSE

All of Them Love to Tell Their Praises of "Neutrone Prescription 99."

A workman buying a bottle of "Neutrone Prescription 99" was asked how it was helping him.

"Helping me, he replied. "Why there is nothing on earth like it. You don't know how my poor swollen, stiff joints and muscles pained and burned. I was nearly crazy with the suffering and the worry of losing so much time and pay.

"Before I knew about "Neutrone Prescription 99" I tried all kinds of tablets and liniments, but one bottle of "Neutrone Prescription 99" helped me so much that I am never without it now, all pain and swelling is gone and I feel like doing things."

"Neutrone Prescription 99" certainly must be a wonder," the druggist replied. "We have never handled anything like it, they all say the same." 50c and $1.00 the bottle, mail orders filled on $1 size.

Our Boys and Girls

Children think so much more completely than their limited vocabulary allows them to openly express, they teem so with scintillating and not always vain imaginings, that they are wont to impetuously try to crowd a mass of thoughts and experiences into a few words and syllables. This only too often explains their anxious stuttering. It is, therefore, of the utmost importance to have children who are thinkers learn to speak slowly and deliberately without impetuosity.

The impulsive, voluble boy who rushes headlong into the dining room and tries, between gulps of porridge, soup and other dishes, to tell you about the day's doings, is the very child that must be cautioned to hold up, to stop a moment, and to speak very slowly. This is the boy who must learn to take a long, deep breath before he starts to talk. Have him breathe deeply and count ten before he begins his narrative.

Every Day Etiquette

"Supposing my name was Sarah James but my friends all call me Sadie, should my name be engraved on my visiting cards as Sarah or Sadie?" asked Sadie.

"A certain degree of formality should be observed in the engraving on a visiting card. Your correct name is preferable to that used by your intimate friends," answered her aunt.

A second action against Mr. Rehbeck in which John Lavelle subscribed to the affidavit charged Mr. Rehbeck with assault and battery. This case also was dismissed by Justice Jones on account of a lack of evidence and no grounds for action.

ACCEPTS CALL FOR REVIVAL MEETING IN NEWARK APR. 8

Word has been received from Evangelist L. E. Bromley, now conducting a series of revival meetings at Washington, C. H., that he and his party of assistants, numbering about a dozen, will be here to open a revival campaign to last six weeks, on Easter Sunday, April 8.

It is not known where the new tabernacle capable of seating between 4,000 and 5,000 people will be erected.

OHIO ELECTRIC TO RELAY TRACKS IN EAST MAIN STREET.

The Ohio Electric railway will lay new tracks on East Main street from the Baltimore and Ohio crossing to Cedar street and orders have been placed for the rails. When these will arrive is problematical but in the meantime the Federal Asphalt company of Hamilton, Ohio, will be in readiness to begin the work of repaving the street with sheet asphalt, having been awarded the contract at their bid of $42,878.40.

The company's "plant" has been here all winter, and there is a well-defined rumor that this industry contemplates making Newark headquarters in the future.

FOR NON-SUPPORT.

Sheriff C. H. Swarts yesterday arrested a negro named Robert Powell, of Louisville, and is holding him for Allen county officials, who will take him back to Lima to answer a charge of non-support of his 15-year-old daughter.

Stood on His Dignity.

United States Senator Hoar in his autobiography relates an anecdote of Anson Burlingame, the famous lawyer of Detroit, who was afterward minister to China. He says:

"Shortly after Burlingame came into active life he made a journey to Europe. The American minister obtained for him a ticket of admission to the house of commons. He was shown to a very comfortable seat in the gallery. In a few minutes an official came to him and said he must leave that seat, that the gallery where he was was reserved for peers. They are very particular about such things there. Burlingame got up to go out, when an old peer who happened to be sitting by him and had heard what was said interposed. 'Let him stay,' he said; 'he is a peer in his own country.' 'I am a sovereign in my own country, sir,' replied Burlingame, 'and shall lose caste if I associate with peers.' And he went out."

Shooting With a Revolver.

Very few people, even accomplished shots, know how a revolver ought to be handled.

Troops are taught in aiming never to look at the weapon at all, but to keep their eyes on the object to be struck. In quick firing, and especially in shooting from horseback, much better results are obtained in this way.

A man throwing a stone does not look at his hand. Neither does a billiard player sight along his cue. The same rules apply to the use of short weapons. Men have been trained to shoot excellently at a mark when their pistol sights were hidden.

Nearly any one can sight a pistol correctly, the inaccuracy of the aim being due to the trembling of the hands before the trigger is pressed. By hiding the sight the temptation to hold too long is removed, and the first aim, generally the most accurate, is preserved. —Pearson's.

Old Time Cutlers.

The earliest instance of admission to the freedom of the Cutlers' company of London by apprenticeship is that of John, son of Saman the Knifesmith, who was apprenticed to Stephen atte Holt, cutler, in 1287. The Cutlers were divided into four main branches—the bladesmith or knifesmith made the blades, the hafter produced the handle or haft, the sheather the sheath, while the cutler put together the various parts and sold the tool or weapon complete. Closely allied to the craft were the burbours or furbishers, who were common to the crafts of cutlers and armourers and were engaged in furbishing and refitting old armor, weapons and garments. Another subsidiary occupation was that of the grinder. The bladesmiths were divided into two branches, the knifesmiths and swordsmiths.—London Graphic.

Man With a Miscellaneous Past.

"We have been gradually growing accustomed, and especially of more recent years, to regard ourselves as a composite people—an amalgamation of several races and many nationalities," says the New Republic.

"To illustrate that, the writer is fond of quoting Herbert Croly's characterization of Mark Hanna's ancestry. After describing how 'in his father's blood there was a Scotch-Irish, a Welsh and an English or Dutch strain and on his mother's side a French Huguenot, an Irish and an English infusion,' Mr. Croly concludes, 'He became by virtue thereof a tolerably typical American, which means a man whose past is so miscellaneous that he is obliged to seek for himself some form of effective personal definition.'"

Quite Musical.

It may be so, and it may not, but a Los Angeles student affirms it in an examination paper, and here it is: "Beethoven discovered the sonata in four moves. Before this it was a sweet. He wrote many piano sonatas for the violin, and they were called string quartets. When a piano sonata was for an orchestra it was called a symphony. The ninth piano sonata he wrote for voices to sing."

Ambiguous.

When Bilkins was away from home on a long business trip he got a letter from his wife that still puzzles him. It ended thus:

"Baby is well and lots brighter than she used to be. Hoping that you are the same, I remain, your loving wife." —Manchester Union.

Tightwad.

"I understand that Mr. Pinchpenny has been operated on for appendicitis," remarked Miss Cayenne.

"Yes. It's the first time any one was known to get anything out of him."

"And even then they had to give him chloroform to get that."

A Genius.

"Your mother-in-law never pays you a long visit," said one man to another. "How is that?"

"She did once, but I got my mother to come on a visit at the same time."

Never Idle.

"Dundum is a busy farmer."

"Makes hay while the sun shines, eh?"

"Yep, and raises mushrooms in the dark."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Tattler.

"You didn't tell me, Bobbie, you were in a fight."

"No, sir. I knew you'd hear about it from that boy's father. That's the kind of a boy he is."—Life.

A part of your friends condemn you, others praise you; approach the condemning and keep aloof from the admirers.—Talmud.

The worst thing about an obstacle is that it is always in the way.

Chicago Grain and Provisions.

Chicago, Feb. 5.—Nervous and relatively small trade were the most noticeable features today in the wheat pit. Opening prices which ranged from ¾ off to ¾ up with May at 1.47¾ to 1.48½, and July at 1.49½ to 1.50 were followed by rapid changes but an increasing bearish tendency till the market had dropped to below Saturday's finish all around.

The close was strong at 1 to 5¾ net higher at May at 1.44 to 1.44¾ and July at 1.47 to 1.49½.

Selling pressure was less evident in corn than wheat. After opening ¾ to ¾ higher the market scored material further upturns.

The close was firm at 1 to 2¾ advance.

Oats sympathized with the action of corn. The purchasing of cats, however, appeared to lack vigor.

Sharp advances in provisions resulted from the scantiness of the hog supply here and at other western centers. Hog quotations were at the highest level of the season.

Wall Street.

New York, Feb. 5.—Many substantial gains were made at today's opening, last Saturday's buoyant rally being generally extended. United States steel rose over two points and Bethlehem steel old stock 15 points, but the new Bethlehem shares were three points lower. Advances of 1 to 3 points were scored by Cruicible and Lackawana steel, prominent coppers, Mexican petroleum, Westighouse, United Fruit, Ohio Gas and some of the equipments. Rails were higher except Reading, Texas company, Atlantic Gulf and West Indies, American Can and Industrial Alcohol receded 1 to 5 points. Prices eased all around soon after the opening but United States steel more than regained its early advantage.

Recessions of 1 to 2 points in the first thirty minutes were accepted as a natural result of extreme realizing for profits. Rallies speedily set in, however, steel and other favorites increasing early gains. Dealings attended wider scope on the further improvement with war shares assuming greater prominence. Coppers also were in general demand and shippings strengthened despite prohibitive insurance rates. Rails alone were neglected in the broader offerings. Trading fell off in the second hour and moderate reactions again ruled. Sales to noon were estimated at 700,000 shares. Now low records for foremost international issues featured the bond list.

Later reversals of 1 to 3 points due to weakness in New Haven, and Brooklyn transit were largely overcome in the final dealings, some specialties mounting to best quotations.

The closing was strong.

With few exceptions, prominent issues, including war shares today made further noteworthy gains over last week's closing prices. Rails were the only important group to lag. Sales were estimated at 1,200,000 shares.

U-BOAT TOWED 37 OF HOUSATONIC CREW TO SAFETY

Washington, Feb. 5.—The possibility that the sinking of the American steamer Housatonic will become a serious factor in the crisis with Germany apparently was eliminated yesterday by evidence that the attacking submarine acted within international law. American Consul Stephens at Plymouth reported that warning was given and provision made for safety of the crew.

As the Housatonic was carrying contraband, any controversy over her destruction is expected to present no more serious an issue than a claim for monetary damages. If the consul's report is correct, the case apparently falls into the same category as that of the American ship William P. Frye, destroyed with a cargo of grain early in the war by a raider after her crew had been taken off.

Consul Stephens' dispatch said:

"American steamer Housatonic, loaded with a cargo of wheat for the British government, torpedoed by German submarine 12:30 February 3. Vessel warned and total crew of 37 rescued by submarine and towed for 90 minutes toward land. Submarine fired signal to British patrol boat, which subsequently landed crew at Penzance."

In some quarters the unusual precautions taken to insure a safe landing for the crew was taken to mean that international law and Germany's submarine pledges would be observed more scrupulously than ever in the case of the many vessels which were on the high seas at the time the new campaign of unrestricted warfare became effective Feb 1. In her note announcing the campaign, Germany said immunity from the new measures of warfare would be extended to all ships which had left their home ports before the effective date.

Gossip From State House

Columbus, Feb. 5.—Members of the Ohio General Assembly here today to resume their session at 5 o'clock this evening declared they stood ready to appropriate any money that may be necessary to place the Ohio National Guard in readiness for a call to mobilize should such a call be received from the war department in connection with the present international crisis.

Interest in legislative matters was almost entirely diverted today to the international situation. The house has already adopted a resolution pledging the President support in any emergency and a similar resolution wil probably be adopted by the senate tonight.

Both the house and senate are scheduled to meet at 5 p. m. for short sessions. A public hearing on the Holden resolution to submit the question of woman's suffrage to a vote of the people next November was scheduled to be held tonight in the senate chamber.

The Blauser bill to pace quail on the song bird list is to come up for a vote in the house tomorrow (Tuesday) and indications point to the Proposed legislative investigations jority.

Proposed legislative investigations are to be sidetracked until all absolutely necessary legislation is dispose of it was reported today. This includes the proposed investigation of campaign expenses in the last election recommended by Governor Willis.

In order to assist in expediting matters before the legislature Governor Cox will give audience this week to members of the legislature and public officials only, his secretary, Charles Morris announced today.

Many officials of Ohio municipalities and school districts are expected to appear before the senate cities committee tomorrow evening when bills proposing relief for debt-burdened taxing districts will come up for consideration.

A resolution to submit the question of a constitutional amendment providing for the adoption of the single tax theory in Ohio is expected to come before the general assembly next week, backed by the Ohio Site Value Taxation League.

Bills by Representative Canny of Montgomery and Representative Parrett of Fayette affecting building and loan associations will come up before the building and loan associations committee of the house tomorrow evening.

Representative Frank Rieghard, Republican floor leader of the house, has issued a statement denying that his bill to provide for an audit of the workmans compensation fund is an attack on the compensation law, prompted by private liability insurance companies.

"My only reason for making an attempt to have an audit made at this time", said Rieghard, "is that under the law just passed, ousting liability companies from competition with the state fund, the employers and employees of the state are dependent entirely upon the state system of compensation and they ought to be given every measure of protection.

CENSORSHIP IS CLAMPED DOWN IN HONOLULU.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

San Francisco, Feb. 5.—The extent of the damage to the interned German gunboat Geier, which advices yesterday from Honolulu stated was on fire in the harbor there probably will remain unknown until the government censorship has relaxed. Messages sent from this city to Honolulu seeking information regarding the Geier today brought only the reply: "Censorship in operation."

You can raise a man in his own estimation, but it isn't always possible to keep him there.

Cake Walkers to Be Feature of Elk Minstrels

The first orchestra rehearsal for the Elk minstrels was held yesterday and Prof. Guy Risher and ten musicians handled the song scores like old veterans. The music is of the latest, catchy and contains many of the big hits. Following the first part of the minstrel the orchestra will render, "The Village Orchestra," in which many soloists will be heard.

Some of the Cake Walkers Who Will Be Seen at the Elk Minstrel, Wednesday and Thursday, February 14th and 15th.

This year's organization contains much new talent which will be heard for the first time. Excellent voices will assist in making the minstrel one of the best ever given in this city. Dave Murphy and Beryl Shaw will again be heard in coon shouting songs, while two new end singers will be Sylvester Gainor and Howard Keller are two new recruits. These two young men will surprise everyone with their clever jokes and songs.

The ballad singers, Frank Ewald, M. J. Basick, M. J. Basick, Karl Kuster and Robert Vogel, all have splendid numbers, and their excellent voices will be heard to advantage. The big song hit, however, in the first part will be the drinking song from the opera of "The Beggar Student," drinking from the bride's slipper, a Polish custom at a wedding participated in by the guests, but whosoever drinks from the slipper must also improvise a toast in her praise. It is really one of the big numbers and will score a distinctive hit.

The ukalele players have been rehearsing faithfully and eigh young men in native costume will depict faithfully a Hawaiian orchestra. Their playing has been highly complimented by all who have heard them. Seven Hawaiian dancing girls will make things merry and then Lillykolukie, queen of the tangoists will do the latest and approved dance. The cake walkers will furnish plenty of amusement and under the leadership of Walter Rauck will prove a decided hit. The audience will be the judges and the big frosted cake will be awarded the couple receiving the most applause.

This Simple Laxative A Houshold Necessity

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin Should Have a Place in Every Home.

Hon John D. Keister

Constipation, or inaction of the bowels, a condition that nearly everyone experiences with more or less frequency, is the direct cause of much disease. When the bowels become clogged with refuse from the stomach, foul gases and poisons are generated, and unless the congestion is quickly relieved the system becomes weakened and most susceptible to attack.

Various remedies to relieve constipation are prescribed, but many of these contain cathartic or purgative agents that are harsh and violent in their action and shock the system. The most effective remedy is the combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin that is sold in drug stores under the name of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin.

The Hon. John D. Keister of Brandywine, W. Va., who has represented his district in the State Legislature for six years, writes that he uses Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin and finds it a splendid laxative, easy to take and mild, yet positive, in its action, and that it should be in every household for use when needed.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is sold by druggists in all parts of the United States and costs only fifty cents a bottle. It contains no opiate or narcotic drug, does not gripe, and is recommended as a family laxative, mild enough for the tiniest babe, yet sufficiently powerful to act easily on the strongest constitution.

To avoid imitations and ineffective substitutes be sure to get Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. See that a fac-simile of Dr. Caldwell's signature and his portrait appear on the yellow carton in which the bottle is packed. A trial bottle, free of charge, can be obtained by writing to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 455 Washington St., Monticello, Illinois.

Welcoming New Spring Goods In Every Dep't.

EVERY day brings in new goods that you will want to see this coming week Surely nothing can be more interesting than the first glimpse of the new spring styles—for the coming of spring means the advent of fresher, brighter colors Our early showing of suits and coats will prove most interesting after seeing only the somber winter colors for so many months.

Suits for the spring season represent a marked reaction against the elaborate styles which have been in vogue for the past few years. The new styles are different and simpler, but until you see them in their charming colors, you will not realize how very attractive they are.

THE DOCTOR TOLD B. & O. FIREMAN TO USE NERV-WORTH

Sufferer's Mother Reports the Wonderful Results

The following signed statement, given by Mrs. Elia Hess of 217 Liberty avenue, Fairmont, W. Va., is one of the most remarkable bits of praise ever given to a medicine. It is a message to sufferers that should be carefully read:

"My son, W. R. Hess, has suffered extreme nervousness for about seven months. Doctored all this time but did not show much improvement. All run-down, no sleep, no rest, very poor appetite, not able to work. Was fireman on the B. & O. R. R. He used one bottle of Nerv-Worth. His condition seemed right smart better. He sleeps. Fine appetite. Digests his food.

"His doctor advised him to continue taking Nerv-Worth, as the doctor noted the improvement in his patient's condition and said it was the best medicine for him—to keep on taking Nerv-Worth. I recommend Nerv-Worth.

A Liberal Offer By Licking Creamery Company

To the Users of Milk and Cream From Its Retail Wogons.

The Licking Creamery Company begs to announce that until further notice it will make a regular monthly award of two (2) $1.00 sheets of milk tickets upon each of its retail milk wagon routes to private consumers of milk and cream throughout the city.

The awards will be made on the 15th day of each month.

A duplicate receipt stub from every sheet of tickets sold during the preceding month will be placed in a box from which the stubs to receive awards will be drawn by a disinterested party. Each route will be handled separately.

THERE IS BUT ONE CONDITION QUALIFYING THESE AWARDS.

All competitors must have their accounts with the Licking Creamery Company paid in full for the month preceding the one in which any given drawing occurs.

In other words, should a duplicate of one of your ticket receipt stubs be drawn on the 15th of one month it would not receive an award unless your account was paid in full for the month preceding.

This is absolutely the only requirement made, thereby characterizing this proposition as being extremely clean cut and liberal.

We hope it will please the public. Watch for the next drawing. Your name may be among the fortunate ones to be announced in the papers following the next drawing.

BAPTISTS BID FAREWELL TO OLD EDIFICE

With a very impressive service the congregation of the Fifth Street Baptist church bade farewell to the old edifice yesterday morning. The occasion was one which called forth mingled emotions, joy over the fact that a new church will be built, offering better and larger opportunities for service, while the severance of old ties, the recall of tender memories, could do no otherwise than bring a tinge of sorrow, especially to those who have for many years found in the old building a church home.

The services yesterday morning began at 10:30 o'clock, and over 200 partook of the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper. Dr. C. H. Stull, the pastor preached a sermon upon the theme of Christ's challenge to the Pharisees as recorded in John 2:19, "Destroy this Temple and I Will Raise It Again in Three Days."

Following the sermon a praise service was held which resolved itself into a meeting at which many reminiscences were recounted. Many took part and extolled the faithful work of those some still living, others gone to their reward among the latter being J. B. Jones, Deacon Forry, Deacon Honnenberger, Deacon Charles Ball and others.

Among those who spoke were W. D. Gilbert, J. R. Davies, Mrs. J. B. Jones, B. B. Hughes and Rev. Mr. Harford who for 20 years was pastor of Licking church, now retired and living in Granville.

Special music was rendered by the choir of the church, and Miss Anna Beers of Granville sang an arrangement of the "Ninety and Nine."

The services closed by all of the large congregation joining hands around the church and singing "Blest Be the Tie That Binds," following this by singing the long meter doxology twice, once for the old church and once for the new.

Dr. C. H. Stull before dismissing the congregation announced that regular services will be held hereafter, on Sunday in the First Congregational church (old Welsh) on North Fourth between Locust and High streets. Sunday school, morning and evening preaching services and the Wednesday evening prayer meetings all will be held as usual and the regular congregation of the church will worship with the Baptists.

DR. CARNEY WILL SPEAK TO NEWARK BUSINESS MEN.

Reports from four important committees will be presented at a meeting of the Mercantile Bureau in the Chamber of Commerce headquarters this evening. They affect every merchant in the city and have to do with improvements in methods and conditions surrounding retail merchandising. Several new subjects will be introduced for investigation and committees will be appointed to work them out. A large attendance of every line of retailing is desired that a general expression may be obtained.

The Traffic Committee of the Chamber will resume its work Tuesday night. It is working on the coal question—sources of supply, rates, car shortage, et..—and has gathered some valuable data. It also will be represented on a general committee which will confer with the Baltimore and Ohio officials relative to the location of the new freight station to be built this spring.

The Membership and Finance Committee will make the fourth week report of the contest for new members Tuesday night. Thus far they have brought in eight applications and a total of 50 applications since the committee began work on Sept. 1.

The Membership Council will be addressed Thursday night, by Professor Carney of Denison University, who will speak of "Commerce of the Cave Man and of Today." Professor Carney has given this talk to a number of business groups in other cities and it has been well received. It is unique, informative and interesting. From time to time other members of Denison's faculty will address the Membership Council.

MAJ. BLIZZARD SERIOUSLY ILL OF INDIGESTION

Suffering with an attack of acute indigestion which for a time was believed to be necessarily fatal, Major Elmer E. Blizzard, storekeeper at the Buckeye Rolling Mill, was taken from the plant to his home, 15 Grant street, Sunday evening in Bradley's ambulance.

Major Blizzard's condition today is somewhat improved, but the attending physician, Dr. W. B. Nye, is apprehensive of a threatened complication, as symptoms of pneumonia developed during last night.

NEWARK BOY ON U. S. DESTROYER OBJECT OF PLOT

Arch Leedy, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Leedy of Holiday street, was the first son of Newark to participate in the early incidents connected with the diplomatic break with Germany. He is a member of the crew of the Torpedo Boat Destroyer Jacob Jones. Saturday's Associated Press dispatches carried a story of an attempt made to sink that vessel by opening the sea cocks. The destroyer was being towed from navy yard to a dock. As she approached the dock she was seen to list heavily and an investigation revealed that the sea cocks had been opened and water was pouring into her hold. The cocks were closed and the vessel tied up to the dock with two feet of water in her hold.

The chief machinist's mate was arrested and placed in irons on board one of the battleships. His name was not revealed by navy yard officials, in compliance with Secretary Daniels' order that no information be given out by navy officials.

Leedy is a machinists mate of the second class. He has only recently returned to his ship.

He came to Newark on a furlough last September when his father suffered an injury which resulted in the loss of his arm. The Jacob Jones is one of the newer vessels in the American navy.

SCHOOLS CLOSE BECAUSE OF COLD; GAS SUPPLY LOW

Low gas pressure played havoc with the educational system of the city, this morning, when lack of heat caused seven of the public schools to be dismissed and the students at St. Francis de Sales school.

All the public schools using gas were abandoned this morning and though the students reported they were sent to their homes. The schools dismissed were the High School, Central building, Hudson Avenue building, Riverside building, East Main Street building, Mill Street building and the Maholm Street building. Several rooms in other buildings were also dismissed. It is hoped that school will be resumed on Tuesday. The St. Francis de Sales parochial school which is also heated with gas was forced to dismiss.

72 U. S. SAILORS TAKEN BY RAIDER ARE RELEASED

Berlin, Feb. 5.—Germany yesterday acceded to the American demands for the release of the 72 American sailors taken from ships sunk by the raider in the Atlantic and brought to a German port aboard the steamer Yarrowdale.

One of the last things to be done by the United States government before severing diplomatic relations with Germany was to demand the Americans taken by the German raider from the British steamers Georgic, Mount Temple and Voltaire, and who were held in German prison camps, be released. A Washington dispatch Saturday said there were 60 of these men. Germany in holding them had contended that as paid members of the crews of armed enemy merchantmen they were due no immunity.

Notoriety demonstrates that some people can attract a great deal of attention who are far from being attractive.

WEATHER SHARK GOT HIS SIGNALS CROSSED SUNDAY

In the "I-am-colder-than-thou-and-can-beat-you-shiver" contest there seems to be a draw between the thermometer at Cedar Hill cemetery, (a good place to shiver by the way, even on a warm moonlight evening) and that at the home of Guy Watkins in Rugg avenue. The contest editor being somewhat befuddled by the recent "cold spell," can think nothing but a frigid remark so has decided to give both the contestants iced lemonade and a bit of ice cream for their reward. But anyway it was pretty cold, for the registering thermometer at the Watkins home registered a maximum of 10 degrees below some time during the night and the mercury at Cedar Hill stood at 10 below at 7 o'clock this a. m.

The weather man sort 'a skidded the community on Saturday when he predicted rising temperature. It did rise, but also it did fall. Also the snow fell. All day long it swished and swerved in and out of nooks, and at noon, the skies which had been leaden became as night, and the storm broke in its greatest fury. A heavy gale whipped the snow into high drifts and as evening approached the temperature dropped rapidly. The wind made it almost impossible to heat the homes, and a low gas pressure added to the discomfort.

The plumbers have become real "professional" like, and had long waiting lists this morning, for the plumbing paraphernalia of nearly every home was suffering from some kind of a complication.

Various thermometers over the city showed a great variance in registering the temperature. At the Ohio Electric car barns the thermometer stood at 4 degrees below at 6 o'clock this morning. At Brown's grocery, corner of East Main and Buena Vista street, it was 7 below at 5 o'clock. Cedar Hill cemetery had a register of 10 degrees below at 7 o'clock. The thermometer at the car barns, however was in a protected place, as was the instrument at the Children's Home which registered 6 below at five o'clock.

The Central Fire Department thermometer registered 8 below about 7 o'clock. While there is no instrument at the Buckeye Rolling Mill reports brought in by the workers say thermometers in that neighborhood registered as low as 13 below. The mercury at the D. Ellis home in Franklin addition dropped to 5 below at 7 o'clock this morning the instrument at the North Newark Fire department read 6 below.

The wind had abated a little Monday morning, and the weather man, who did fall down a bit on the Saturday prognostication, tells us to expect a slowly rising temperature, and possible snow flurries.

2,000,000 GERMANS IN UNITED STATES; 18 PCT. OF ALIENS

New York, Feb. 5.—The last United States census, in 1910, placed the German-born population first of all foreign-born in this country, with a total of 2,501,333. This represents 18.5 per cent of the total foreign-born population of the United States. The figures from the same source for 1900 place the German popuation at 2,813,628.

Besides those of German birth, the national census of 1910 placed at 5,781,437, the number of native Americans of German or mixed parentage. Germany leads in foreign-born population in 12 of 19 principal cities of the United States.

An Antidote for Uric Acid Poison

(By Dr. L. C. Babcock.)

There is a process going on within the body which often poisons us. It is something like the story of the snake being able to kill itself with its own poisons. This is the formation of uric acid in excess within the body. It is a waste product which takes place in the liver. This posionous uric acid is then passed on to the kidneys, which act as a filter to pass off and excrete this poison. If the kidneys are clogged up, inactive, the poison degenerates these organs and causes kidney disease. If it is deposited in the tissues, around the joints of the body, it causes rheumatism or gout.

Consequently we must do everything to throw off this uric acid poison, and simple methods are best. Flush the kidneys by drinking plenty of water between meals; a pint of hot water, morning and night is splendid. Take Anuric (double strength) three times a day for awhile, and get the kidneys to working by flushing out this poison. That painful affliction, known as gout, as well as muscular rheumatism, is caused by the uric acid crystals being deposited in the big toes or tissues. The man who uses his brain, perhaps over-taxing his nervous energy will suffer fits of "blues," depression, headache, sleeplessness, loss of memory, all due to this poison of uric acid. The man who does physical work, using his muscles, occasionally complains of sluggishness, muscular tired feeling, muscular stiffness or aches, neuraligic twinges—symptoms all due to this uric acid accumulation. In every case I advise hot water, and Anuric taken three times daily—a simple, safe remedy, which is to be had at almost every drug store.—Advertisement.
